

Principles

Success in fundraising comes from sharing a philosophy about why organizations raise money and how best to approach the tasks of obtaining philanthropic investment.

Those who affiliate with Dollars and Sense, recognize that donors assist organizations to achieve outcomes they cannot accomplish on their own. Artistic programming, educating the next generation, sustaining high quality health care and providing for poor and vulnerable members of society describe the types of activities that inspire giving.