

Consulting / Outsourcing makes it possible to..

1. Invest only the resources necessary to accomplish a project(s);
2. Obtain decades of expertise and experience for a fraction of the costs of employment;
3. Save the time and money required to recruit and sustain permanent positions;
4. Establish a long-term relationship with a service provider whose team members will not leave for a better job;
5. Train and mentor entry-level staff members to become advancement professionals.

Give Dollars and Sense a budget and we'll recommend a strategy for engaging human resources.
